Tierra del Sol Elects Steve Toscher to the Board of Directors

Sunland, CA – December 2022, Steven Toscher, Esq, was elected to the Board of Directors of Tierra del Sol, a non-profit organization that champions inclusion and value for all people with disabilities through creative pathways to employment, education, and the arts.

Having been involved with Tierra since 2008, Steve notes, “Learning about the organization and the many accomplishments of the people Tierra serves (associates) over the years, has been an inspiration to me and my colleagues. We’re proud to support Tierra, not only because it benefits their worthy associates, but it also helps build a stronger community and better society.”

Toscher, a principal of Hochman, Salkin, Toscher Perez P.C, a tax litigation law firm, specializes in civil and criminal tax controversy and litigation. He is a Certified Tax Specialist in Taxation by the State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization, a Fellow of the American College of Tax Counsel, and has received an "A-V" rating, the highest peer review level from Martindale Hubbell. In addition to his law practice, Steve has served as an adjunct Professor at the USC Marshall School of Business since 1995, where he teaches tax procedure. He has also served on the faculty of the American Bar Association of Criminal Tax Fraud Program since 1998. He is a former Internal Revenue Agent with the Internal Revenue Service and a trial attorney with the Tax Division of the United States Department of Justice in Washington where he received its Outstanding Attorney Award.

Toscher is a frequent lecturer to professional groups and author on civil and criminal tax controversy topics. He is a frequent contributor to the Los Angeles Lawyer, The Journal of Tax Practice and Procedure and Tax Management Bureau of National Affairs. He is a co-author of “Tax Crimes,” Bureau of National Affairs – Tax Management, Publication 6362nd

“We are thrilled to have Steve join Tierra’s Board of Directors,” states Rebecca Lienhard, Chief Executive Officer. “His professional expertise and appreciation for the value that our associates bring to community, make him integral part of Tierra’s leadership.”

Founded 51 years ago by eight families, Tierra now serves 794 people each day throughout the San Fernando, Santa Clarita, and San Gabriel Valleys. Partnerships with 197 community-based partnerships with businesses, nonprofits, and colleges give associates, students, and artists the opportunity to lead productive and personally meaningful lives through workforce development, volunteerism, education and the arts.
